CHICAGO WINS SECOND GAME.

Yesterday's Contest Called in Twelfth Inning on Account of Darkness With Score 3 to 3.

Chicago, Oct. 9.—The sports of Chicago pick Chicago to win today's game of the world's championship series on form. The game is scheduled to start at 2 o'clock today instead of 2:30 and as early as 10 o'clock this morning thousands of fans were filling bleacher seats.

Yesterday's tie game will be played off Thursday. Either Ruelbach or Pfeister will pitch for the Cubs with Kling behind the bat and Mullin or Seiver will pitch for the Tigers, with Schmidt as catcher.

There are at least 25,000 fans at the game. Mullin and Payne compose the battery for Detroit and Pfeister and Kling for Chicago. The players on both teams plainly show the great nervous strain they are laboring under from the result of yesterday's great contest.

Score, first inning—Chicago, 0; Detroit, 0.

Final score, Chicago, 3; Detroit, 1.

YESTERDAY'S GAME.

Chicago, Oct. 8.—Detroit and Chicago, leaders of the American and National Leagues, respectively, played 12 strenuous innings to a tie here today in the first game of the series for the baseball championship of the world; final score 3 to 3. The contest was replete with sensational situations, and when Umpire O'Day of the National league called the play off on account of darkness most of the 24,377 spectators sighed with relief and went home well satisfied with the outcome.

Overall and Donovan were the opposing pitchers, but the former was taken out when Chicago had tied the score in the ninth inning, and had men on bases waiting to score the winning runs. Moran was sent in to bat for him, but before the latter had time to deliver the needed hit, Evers tried to steal home and was out by a narrow margin, retiring the side.

Ruelbach finished the game and for three innings retired Detroit's heavy hitters without the semblance of a hit.

The contest was watched by an immense crowd, the enlarged stands being packed to capacity, while a thin fringe of enthusiasts occupied standing room in deep center field.

SECURITY

FLOUR MILL FOR LONG CREEK.

Big Wheat Crop in the Interior Starts New Industry.

A meeting of the members of the company organizing for the purchase of the Long Creek grist mill was held at the town hall Monday afternoon for the purpose of organization and electing officers, says the Monument Enterprise.

Owing to the fact that the attorney employed was unable to be present the articles of incorporation were not drawn up. Mr. Porter was instructed in regard to the nature of these articles with the purpose of representing the company at the office of the attorney in Canyon City.

C. W. Conger, Charles Ballance and Ed Beard were appointed a temporary board of directors. George Rinehart was elected secretary. It is the purpose of the company to grind wheat immediately in order that those who are forced to eat pan cakes and patent foods can have something more substantial.

It is a fact that a great many bins are overflowing, that this is the greatest wheat year in the history of the country, and that for the past three weeks no flour can be had in Long Creek. Realizing that there is a bread famine in this land of plenty and that there is but one mill in northern Grant, the company declared that an emergency exists and resolved upon immediate action.

LEARNED ABOUT PORTLAND.

"Little Lord Fauntleroy" of the Saturday Evening Post, Made a Mistake.

Samuel G. Blythe, a callow youth in the employ of the Saturday Evening Post, was sent to the coast to write it up, says the Salem Journal. He did. He overlooked Portland entirely, and when a roar was made by Portland papers over the fact, Samuel was taken out of his crib by his mamma and reminded that Portland was on the map.

The Saturday Evening Post apologized, and Samuel, after much cudgeling of his little think tank, sat up and wrote what he knew about Portland. He remembered he saw some roses there, that other people on the coast called Portlanders "Web Feet," and that people in that benighted burg ate crawfish.

CANADIAN HORSES CHEAPER.

Prices of All Classes of Horses Have Been Reduced.

Consul H. D. Van Sant, in the following report from Kingston, shows that there is a heavy drop in prices of second grade horses in the Canadian horse market:

The cheaper grade of horses have seriously depreciated in value. Good horses are in demand and bring good prices, but second-grade horses are down in price. Horses that sold for $100 to $125 last spring are now selling for $50 and $60 each.

Full-Blooded White Leghorn Roosters FOR SALE

From the famous PETALUMA, CALIF., STOCK. Prices very reasonable. ANTON NOLTE PENDLETON, OREGON.

The reasons for this decline are the high price and scarcity of hay this season and the replenishing of stock since the Boer war and the extra demand in the United States, while the exportation of such second-grade horses to the United States has diminished from year to year.

A horse dealer in the northern district reports that the horse market is at a low ebb. He is a large dealer, his operations extending to Toronto and the far west. He says: "A month ago I bought a carload of horses and shipped them to Toronto. There has been no sale for them, and for the past month I have been paying for 20 horses $12 per day for their stabling. This is losing money pretty fast, and the price goes down every day. The prices are worse than cut in half all around, and the country is flooded with unsalable 3 and 4 year olds."

The Way to Settle Land Grants.

The quickest way to settle the railroad land grant matter is for the county courts to have the timber lands cruised, and then let them be taxed at their actual value. When a quarter section of timber land sells for $15,000 it is time to quit assessing that same piece of land at the rate of from $1 to $20 an acre.—Salem Journal.

Eugene Has 1332 Enrolled.

CHANGES IN HOTEL.

Golden Rule Dining Room to Be Improved.

Plans for some extensive changes in the Golden Rule hotel are now being worked out, and it is said work on the same will commence in the near future. The principal change to be made will be in the dining room. The present room will be abandoned for that purpose, and the room immediately west of the hotel office will be converted into a dining room. At present a portion of the room is taken by the barber shop, while the remainder, formerly used by E. W. McCommas, is vacant.

When the above change is made the dining room will henceforth be operated as a check restaurant instead of upon the plan now in use.

RUMOR OF CHANGES.

San Francisco, Oct. 9.—The sickness of Frank Jaynes, general superintendent of the Western Union on the Pacific coast, has led to the rumor that I. N. Miller will become the general superintendent and Assistant Superintendent A. H. May will succeed Miller and Manager J. V. O'Brien will take Mays' place. Miller declines to support the rumor.
